Use of other, third-party materials and services included in or accessed in connection with the software may be subject to other terms and conditions of said third parties.

The software You have licensed may include technology designed to prevent unauthorized copying. You may not disable or attempt to circumvent such technology. Failure to comply with the process of activating the supplied software or attempting to bypass this process may result in the software being inaccessible to You. Engaging in any activity meant to modify or circumvent any restrictions on unauthorized copying shall result in immediate termination of this EULA, irrespective of the time of discovery of such activities by emmtrix. Any further use of the software or other licensed materials by You subsequent to such termination may expose You to liability for copyright infringement and other claims.

If any provision of this EULA is rendered unenforceable or void under the laws of the jurisdiction in which You reside then such provision shall be treated as not agreed to and severed from the EULA without affecting or modifying the other terms and conditions of this EULA.
